STATINTL

During a personal conversation with one of our attorneys on 11 May 1959 you requested this Agency to re-examine the rejection of your claim for additional salary payments. We have once again reviewed all pertinent authorities, including those you had cited in support of your case. Based on this review, it is our opinion that there is no adequate basis for allowance of your claim.

As Mr. Stewart pointed out in his letter to you dated 21 April 1959, if you wish to pursue your claim to the General Accounting Office we will be glad to make the pertinent records available to that Office for its consideration.

Sincerely,

/s/

Lawrence R. Houston
General Counsel
